From: Route Fifty Today
To: Joe Bianco
Subject: Bill to restore full state and local tax deduction emerges in new Congress
Date: Monday, January 7, 2019 4:02:15 AM

Problems viewing? View as a web page

Connecting state and local government leaders

Route Fifty Today January 7, 2019

Bill to Restore Full State, Local Tax Deduction Emerges in New Congress

Bill to Restore Full State, Local Tax Deduction Emerges in New Congress

BILL LUCIA | The "SALT" deduction was curbed by the GOP-backed tax law passed in late 2017.

The Transportation Quandary for Older and Disabled People Is Two-Fold

LAURA MAGGI | A recent survey shows the "great need" to serve those who can't drive or will no longer be able to.

New Governor Has 1st State Budget Due This Week

MICHAEL GRASS | STATE AND LOCAL ROUNDUP | Minn. is falling behind on goals to reduce emissions … Airbnb sees big growth in rural areas … and a lawsuit could drain Pa. transit funding.

Brought to you by ServiceNow

How Your Government Agency Can Increase Productivity, Visibility, Security— and Reduce Costs

There is a tremendous amount of pressure on IT staff in government agencies to do "more with less," adopt digital transformation, and develop innovative ideas. Unfortunately, there are an array of strategic issues and challenges that are creating delays and bottlenecks. ServiceNow is changing the way government agencies work by expediting and automating the delivery of modern services, while driving down costs. Privacy Policy.

Download Now

Metros Should Focus on Attracting and Upskilling Workers in 'Opportunity Industries'

DAVE NYCZEPIR | There's a difference between a good job, a promising job and other jobs, particularly for people without bachelor's degrees, according to a recent Brookings report.

Places Where Flu Activity Has Been the Highest

MICHAEL GRASS | Many localities haven't yet felt the full brunt of influenza season.

The FBI Is Trying Amazon's Facial-Recognition Software

FRANK KONKEL | The software allows the FBI to go through video surveillance footage much faster than agents can.

Counting Prison Inmates Differently Could Shift Political Power to Cities

TIM HENDERSON | Most states count prisoners as residents of the places where they are incarcerated. But some are shifting to counting them as parts of their home communities.

A Terrifying Sea-Level Prediction Now Looks Far Less Likely

ROBINSON MEYER | THE ATLANTIC | But experts warn that our overall picture of sea-level rise looks far scarier today than it did even five years ago.

Explore Route Fifty's 2018 Newsmap

MICHAEL GRASS | From Akron, Ohio, to Yavapai County, Arizona, and countless other places, navigate the year in state and local government news from around the nation.

Brought to you by ServiceNow

How Your Government Agency Can Increase Productivity, Visibility, Security— and Reduce Costs

There is a tremendous amount of pressure on IT staff in government agencies to do "more with less," adopt digital transformation, and develop innovative ideas. Unfortunately, there are an array of strategic issues and challenges that are creating delays and bottlenecks. ServiceNow is changing the way government agencies work by expediting and automating the delivery of modern services, while driving down costs. Privacy Policy.

Download Now

This message was sent from Route Fifty to jbianco@bakersfieldpd.us. You have been sent Route Fifty Today because you have opted in to receive it. Note: It may take our system up to two business days to process your unsubscribe request and during that time you may receive one or two more newsletters. Thank you for reading Route Fifty Today.

Government Executive Media Group, 600 New Hampshire Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20037